

Please leave this law alone. Telemarketers used call at all hours and with a small baby the calls would disrupt our schedule. We really love the silence the no call list has given us.